Extending your hand of friendship

Volunteers brought our residents out for a walk in the park.

Caring for every resident's well-being

St. Andrew's Nursing Home (Buangkok) is a 300-bed psychiatric nursing home that provides long term nursing care for residents.

Residents receive a spectrum of services including nursing and rehabilitative therapy services in a safe and supportive environment. Daily activities include physical exercises, art and craft sessions, as well as social and recreational activities such as singing, dancing and outings to develop their social interaction skills.

Knowing Our Resident

Auntie Nancy, 70 years old, who suffers from dementia, has been staying at St. Andrew's Nursing Home (Buangkok) since we started operating in 2013. Occasionally, she faces memory loss, becomes disorientated and experiences unexplained fatigue and sleep changes.

Despite this, she enjoys making new friends, singing old songs and going out for excursions around Singapore. She is well supported by our team of nurses and therapists in her activities of daily living.

You can make a difference in the lives of our residents. We invite you to journey with us in the care of our residents.

Corporate Organisations

Sponsor an outing for our residents or make a donation. We also welcome volunteers to organise activities such as outings, gardening, befriending as well as art and craft sessions.

Community Groups

Organise events and activities for our residents. For example, you can hold music and dance lessons, bring them for outings or organise festive celebrations for them.

Individuals

Teach a class in handicraft or activity you are passionate about. You can also consider being a regular befriender to our residents.

Teachers and Students

Get your class or schoolmates to volunteer and teach a skill, or organise activities for our residents as part of the Values in Action Programme.
